4. Campaigning

4.1. The start date and end date of the Campaigning Period shall be made known to all Election Nominees upon their successful nomination.

4.2. Any Nominee may place for display or give out campaign material subject to the following rules:

4.2.1. All campaign material of a Nominee shall be removed by that Nominee the end of the Campaigning Period.

4.2.2. Every Nominee must submit his campaign material to the Election Committee for written approval prior to giving out or placing said campaign material.

4.2.3. Should a Nominee, having previously placed his campaign material in a location approved by the Election Committee, wish to relocate said campaign material, the Nominee shall seek written approval from the Election Committee to perform the relocation.

4.2.4. The Election Committee shall make rules regarding the placement or giving out of campaign material and announce said rules before the start of the Campaigning Period.

4.3. A Nominee who wishes to give a speech in a lecture may do so only if he obtains prior permission from the lecturer and the Election Committee.

4.4. The Election Committee may require all Nominees to speak at a General Meeting of the Club.

4.4.1. Every Nominee must be present and speak at this meeting if the Election Committee requires it.

4.4.2. Only one Nominee shall speak at a time.

4.4.3. A question-and-answer segment shall follow each speech, during which only Club Members may pose questions.

4.4.4. The Election Committee shall have the right to disallow questions that are, in the opinion of the Election Committee, derogatory and/or malicious.

4.4.5. Every Nominee is required to answer any question posed to him by Club Members during the question-and-answer segment following his speech, except those disallowed under Clause 4.4.4.

4.5. The Election Committee shall, during the Campaigning Period, convene a meeting with each Nominee individually for the purpose of ensuring that every Nominee is aware of his responsibilities should he be elected and removing any Nominee who is egregiously unsuited for the position he is running for.

4.5.1. The meeting shall be attended by the Nominee, at least one member of the Election Committee, at least one member of the incumbent MC and at least one faculty advisor of the Club.

4.5.2. The Election Committee may, based on their objective findings in the meeting, decide to begin the following process of removing a Nominee from the election:

4.5.2.1. The Election Committee presents its objective findings to the PCell.

4.5.2.2. The PCell may conduct an additional, recorded, interview of the Nominee in question, as well as any additional investigations the PCell deems necessary.

4.5.2.3. The PCell shall then vote to present the case to the incumbent MC. If a two-thirds majority is attained, the PCell shall call for an MC meeting and presents the objective findings of both the Election Committee and the interview by PCell (pursuant to Clause 4.5.2.2) and/or investigations to the MC. If a two-thirds majority is not attained, the process is aborted.

4.5.2.4. The MC shall then vote to remove the Nominee from the election. If a two-thirds majority is attained, the Nominee shall be removed from the election. If a two-thirds majority is not attained, the process is aborted.

4.5.2.5. If, at any point, the process of removing a Nominee is aborted pursuant to any of Clauses 4.5.2.3 and 4.5.2.4, the Nominee in question shall remain in the election without any facing any additional prejudice.

4.5.2.6. Until the final decision has been made to remove the Nominee under Clause 4.5.2.4, the proceedings shall remain confidential and known only to the Election Committee, incumbent MC and faculty advisors to Computing Club.

5. Polling Period

5.1. Voting is carried out by means of a paper ballot administered by the Election Committee.

5.1.1. The paper ballot shall be carried out in a room to which extended access is permitted only to the Election Committee.

5.1.2. At the end of each polling day, the Election Committee shall place the ballot boxes in a secure location to which access is permitted only to the Election Committee.

5.2. Each Club Member shall have exactly one vote. All other persons shall have no voting rights.

5.3. Voting by proxy is permitted.

5.3.1. The proxy shall be a Club Member.

5.3.2. Each Club Member shall be a proxy for at most two (2) Club members.

5.3.3. A Club Member who has chosen to vote by proxy shall not be allowed to cast a vote in person.

5.4. If two or more Nominees are contesting a position, the Nominee who receives the greatest net vote for that position shall be deemed elected to that position.

5.4.1. The net vote for a Nominee for a particular position shall be defined as the number resulting from the subtraction of the number of votes of no confidence for that Nominee from the number of votes of confidence for that Nominee.

5.5. In the event that there is exactly one Nominee for a position, the Nominee shall be deemed elected to that position if and only if at least 75% of the votes he receives are votes of confidence.

5.6. In the event that two or more nominees are contesting a position and there is more than one nominee with the greatest net vote, the incumbent MC shall decide, by voting on a motion raised in an MC meeting, who fills the position in question.

5.6.1. No Nominee who is also an MC member shall vote on the motion described in Clause 5.6.

6. Contingencies and By-Elections

6.1. If any position is left vacant at the end of an election, the internal replacement rules for vacant positions, as defined in the Constitution, shall be first applied to fill the vacant positions. An attempt shall then be made, through a single by-election, to fill any remaining unfilled positions that are required, by the Constitution, to be filled. After all these attempts have been exhausted, the election shall end and any remaining unfilled positions shall remain unfilled.

6.1.1. Only Club Members otherwise eligible to be nominated for a position may be co-opted to that position.

6.1.2. A Club Member may be co-opted to a position by majority vote among members of the MC newly elected in the most recent election.

6.1.3. A Club Member who has been co-opted to a position shall have all rights and responsibilities associated with the position, except those rights and responsibilities that are only accorded on condition of being elected.

6.2. A by-election shall follow all the rules of an election as defined in the ESO, with the exception of the appointment of the Election Committee. The Election Committee for a given by-election shall be the same as that of the associated and immediately preceding election.
